Group of Eight Regional Campuses, Clinical Presences and Facilities

The University of Melbourne's Dookie
campus is the largest farm campus in the southern hemisphere

The University of Western Australia
has Albany campus

Monash University's third largest campus is Frankston's Peninsula campus

The University of Queensland has Gatton campus

Go8 research delivers significant results for regional & remote Australia such as:

Agriculture advances such as wheat varieties more resilient to weather variations; salt tolerant chickpea crops; developing tools to guide optimal land use

Improved mining and resource extraction techniques

Better prediction and better preparedness for extreme weather, seasonal changes and other weather variances

Sustainability of fisheries including through improved modelling to maximise sustainable yield while reducing overfishing risk

Reduction of dengue fever in Townsville and Cairns with Far North Queensland declared fever free for the first time in more than a century

Go8 collaborations that deliver for regional & remote Australia such as:

ARC Centres of Excellence – coral reef studies, climate extremes, Australian biodiversity and heritage, plant success

Cooperative Research Centres (CRCs) – honey bee products, cybersecurity, optimising resource extraction, blue economy, bushfires and natural hazards, developing Northern Australia, MinEx, transformations in mining economies
